

The Families @ Work Legal Clinic

Have you experienced problems at work because you had to take care of a family member?

Do you feel targeted at work because you are pregnant?

Do you take care of a disabled child or relative and need to learn more about your rights at work?

Call our hotline at 212-430-5982 to set up an appointment

Who should call?

Low-income workers in New York who are pregnant or have family caregiving responsibilities, who want legal advice about family leave, discrimination and other workplace issues related to pregnancy and family care.

Lawyers from A Better Balance: The Work and Family Legal Center & Outten & Golden LLP have started a free legal clinic for family caregivers and pregnant women to provide advice and counseling about their workplace rights.
